

Amateur Club Minutes

The 2007 show season is now underway. The first show is always great one. You see so many of your old friends and as the year goes on you meet many more. The first show is also a good time to see where you stand amongst your competitors. Most of the time this will result in doing a lot more homework. Good luck to everyone, try hard, and hope you have fun.

New officers, New Year lets hope everyone works together to make another successful and enjoyable show season. It would be great this year to have our high point winners acknowledged immediately at the closing of the show, not an hour, week, or a month later. For instance when the last youth class is completed the high point and reserve totals for that division should be available for announcement. There are still high point awards from the '06 show season that have not been distributed. It would also be great to have these individuals recognized for their achievements in a special section of our newsletter.

Reminders:

We are always in need of volunteer help at our two Amateur shows. If you would like to pitch in we would love to have you. Our show dates are June 16, 2007 at Springfield, Ohio and July 28, at Coshocton, Ohio. We will provide you with a good time.

If you are still interested in selling candy we might have a few boxes left. You can contact Connie Runkle at 419-752-7463. Also if you would like to sponsor a class you can do that for as little as $10.00 a class. Your name will be announced during that class. You can contact Either Carolyn Kegley at 740-353-4111 or Shawna Eisenhart at 419-426-5843.

Subject to change, the next amateur meeting will be held on June 15 or 16, 2007 at Springfield, Ohio. Time and location will be selected at a later date.

Final thought:

Jim Stovall: You need to be aware of what other are doing, applaud their efforts, acknowledge their successes, and encourage them in their pursuits. When we all help one another, everybody wins.
